

Simply mobile.

Mission

Alber offers premium mobility products and services for seniors and people with walking disabilities. We want to be international market leader in our market segments, aiming at sustained high earnings.

Customers

We serve our customers friendly, competent and rapidly. We are benchmark in service.

Employees

We develop and support employees and provide clear structures and competences to achieve precise defined results.

Quality

Our products and services are of excellent quality, whereby we differentiate from competitors and offer a sustained added value to our customers.

Products

Our company is a pioneer in the rehabilitation and seniors market with sophisticated and intelligent mobility products. We are always one step ahead of our competitors.

Organization

Our organization is clear and transparent structured, learning and forward orientated.